FAQ's

Q: Why ?

A: Helps the DOE and local school systems understand the level of family involvement. It helps understand how parents perceive the success of school-to-home partnerships.

Q: What will be done with the info?

A: The DOE will work collaboratively with Parent to Parent of GA to identify needs and help build better parent-school involvement

Q: Who ?

A: The Ga DOE is surveying parents of students with any disability throughout GA.

You've probably heard these terms...

Procedural Safeguards (a.k.a. Parent Rights) offered once per year (or more) —usually at IEP meetings

“I am an Equal Partner” (a.k.a. a part of the IEP team)
Do you feel as though your input is valued and a part of the decision making for the IEP

“Information on agencies” (i.e. LMCS, DBHDD, Parent to Parent)
Are you given information on other groups and organizations to support your child?

“School communicates progress on IEP goals regularly” (a.k.a. Progress Monitoring)
Do you get regular reports about your child's progress on his/her IEP goals (i.e. every 9-weeks and/or with report cards)?

Q: How do I complete it?

A: Online at www.gadoe.org/Parent-Survey

if you do not have access to the online survey, contact your school's parent mentor*

Q: Why am I being asked about ethnicity and disability?

A: ensures that demographics are adequately represented

Q: Who will see the answers?

A: Answers are confidential and coded by a number, so no identifying information is returned to the local schools. The GA DOE partners with the Parent to Parent of GA organization to conduct this survey.
